IT costs $5 and ten days of time to get the title of Prof. (H. W.) Jacob W. Grubb, a man who would desire the flooding of the country with an unlimited amount of silver from the mines of the silver producing states. Some bi-metalists I did see and speak with, but the silver man who is for silver alone I did not find. I found a sentiment in favor of bi-metalism on a sensible basis, a basis that would not enslave the country in financial ruin, and it is to the Republican party that the westerners look for relief in finance.

South Side Not a Victim.

The statement in Saturday's Intelligencer that the former Garlow, whose operations in this vicinity were described, had victimized the South Side bank of the city, is a mistake. The officers of the bank say Garlow did not pass any of his forged checks there.

The W. & J. Mandolin Club.

Manager McGiffen has arranged dates for the Washington and Jefferson mandolin, banjo and guitar club to play at Chittauque, Neb., on June 24.

They will remain there for a week. Dates are also arranged for them to appear at Mountain Lake Park on August 3 and 4. They will be accompanied on the tour by Mr. F. C. Meyer, Wheeling's well known mandolin player.

A Stray Horse.

Sunday afternoon a horse attracted considerable attention by leisurely walking down Market street and apparently taking in the sights. He was first seen over on the island and came across the steel bridge and finally wandered down to the Marshall county line where he was caught and tied. He probably came from Bridgeport or some place on the Ohio side. Up to a late hour last night no person had put in a claim for him.

The Atlantic City Storm.

The Wheelingites who usually spend their vacation at Atlantic City will be sorry to learn that a severe storm Sunday night washed out the steel foundation for the new beach walk, the erection of which was begun about two months ago. The immense steam trawler, which carried everything before them. The authorities of Atlantic City are in despair over the destruction of the work, as it will be impossible to even half finish the walk this summer even if they begin at once on it. What action will be taken in the matter is not known, but it is likely that a temporary wooden structure will be erected.

ABOUT PEOPLE

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Senator Whitaker, Just Returned from a Western Trip, Says

THE HERESY IS NOT RAMPANT

In the Far West—Business People are for Bi-metalism on a Practical Basis. The Politicians and Mine Owners are the Cranks on the Subject of the White Metal—Faith in Republican Success this Year.

Senator N. E. Whitaker, who has just returned from a seven weeks' trip in the far west, tells an interesting story of his sojourn, particularly of his impressions of the political feeling of the westerners. An Intelligencer reporter had an interesting chat with the senator yesterday afternoon.

"I found it to be the general impression among the business people whom I met in California, Colorado and other western states, that business would continue dull and depressed until after the St. Louis convention. The Chicago gathering is not considered in connection with any probable change in affairs. It appears to be the foregone conclusion that the nominee of the Republican national convention will occupy the presidential chair, and for that reason there is general interest in its outcome. Whatever may be the money plank of the party as adopted at this convention, western business men look for improved business conditions. I found this opinion was held by men in the commercial walks of life, both Democrats and Republicans. I said to a Democratic friend, 'You do not appear to have much faith in the success of your party at the coming elections.' And he replied: 'Well, I can't say that I hope for the success of my party next November.' Everywhere McKinley's nomination and election are conceded by the business men of both political faiths, and naturally they feel an interest in the policy of the party that seems destined to succeed at the polls."

"How about the free coinage of silver?"

"It is a remarkable fact, but in my entire trip in the west I did not strike what you may term a free coinage man, a man who would desire the flooding of the country with an unlimited amount of silver from the mines of the silver producing states. Some bi-metalists I did see and speak with, but the silver man who is for silver alone I did not find. I found a sentiment in favor of bi-metalism on a sensible basis, a basis that would not enslave the country in financial ruin, and it is to the Republican party that the westerners look for relief in finance."

"In California, of course, there is little or no free silver sentiment. There the gold production overshadows that of silver. I found that the people generally use gold in their ordinary transactions. It is very difficult to obtain paper money, gold being in use almost entirely. Almost invariably in cashing checks gold is given."

"Outside of those directly interested in silver and the politicians, I saw very few free silver men. There is a conservative element in the west that is not heard from. They are the business men, the bone and sinew of the west, who do not want a radical course pursued in our financial policy."

"Even among the masses, including the men who occupy the modest walks of life, men with whom I talked did not seem imbued with the silver heresy. I talked with two trainmen on a Santa Fe train while coming through Colorado and both were against free silver. They were ungrammatical and their vocabulary did not permit them to express themselves as they might, but very forcibly they told me they were against free silver."

Senator Whitaker, while in California, was at the exposition known as "La Fiesta," the flower show. Though California seems indeed the "Flower Kingdom," the senator says the flowers there have not the strength and quality of aroma that characterize the flowers of this part of the country. It seems to be a case of quantity to the detriment of quality."

The K. of P. Minstrels.

The committee having in charge the big K. of P. minstrel, which is to be given by Black Prince Lodge No. 19, Wednesday, June 10, met last night and prepared the programme, which contains the names of some of the best talent in Wheeling. The minstrels will be given in the new Castle and will be the opening performance. The programme will be ready for publication in about a week. The first rehearsal will take place Thursday evening. Black Prince lodge is still booming, by the way, and although it is the banner lodge of the state now, it still continues to grow. Six applications for membership were put in last week and will be considered at Thursday night's meeting.

Choice Farming Lands in South Dakota.

Along the line of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway can now be had upon reasonable terms. The crop prospects were never better and a glorious harvest for this year is already assured. Thousands of acres of unoccupied lands in over twenty counties are now open for settlement. For further information address H. P. Hunter, Immigration Agent for South Dakota, No. 295 Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill. 16th.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS.

HEADQUARTERS FOR ## Boys' Clothing.

We claim the proud title by the almost unanimous voice and vote of the mothers of Wheeling and vicinity. Our Boys' Clothing is preferred to that of other houses on account of its superior make, fit, finish, and, above all, its very moderate cost. Then, too, our variety affords so wide a field for choice. Any whim of a boy, every taste and purse of a parent, can here be suited. This season leads all its predecessors in this respect. Our light, airy, spacious and handsome Boy's Department is now fairly bristling with all that is new and choice. No seams ripping, no pockets tearing down, no buttons coming off, are three characteristics of our Clothing.

A HUMMER.

For this week only, we will offer the choice of fifty dozen Stiff and Alpine Hats at... $1.50. These goods are all new spring shapes and were made to sell at $2.50 and $3.00, but to whoop things up we shall let them go all week at $1.50. They come in large and small shapes and are warranted fine quality. Colors Black, Brown, Maple, Nutra and Stone.
